

Wayne County Probate Court
2023 Attorney Training
Certification Requirements

To obtain eligibility credit for the 2023 Attorney Training in the Probate Court, attorneys are required to satisfy all the following requirements:

1. Attend the virtual October 5, 2023, Afternoon Attorney Training session offered by the Probate Court.
2. If you did not attend any of the Probate Court Attorney Training Sessions from 1996 - 2022, you must also attend the virtual October 5, 2023, Morning Attorney Training session.
3. Submit the “Attorney Profile Sheet” through the link provided on the Court’s website under Attorney Training.

Deadline for submission of Attorney Profile Sheet is November 17, 2023.

4. Submit a copy of the “face sheet” (i.e., the declaration page showing a minimum aggregate level of liability coverage of $250,000) from your malpractice insurance policy.*

Deadline for submission of malpractice insurance information is November 17, 2023.

*Attorneys who otherwise meet the certification requirements but do not submit malpractice insurance information will be eligible for Guardian ad Litem or Guardianship Review assignments only.
